the Central Library that is located in an independent campus. The Central Library, a 8 storied building spread over an area of 10, 000 sq.m. functions as the main learning resource centre of the University. Besides, the University has recently established a unique spiritual library at Jagannath temple, KISS catering to the needs of religious people, humble souls, saints and philanthropists by building a balanced collection acquired from distinguished religious institutions, missions, and maths. In the year 2019, the University has established three imposing libraries namely, Gandhian Library, Fiction Library, and Poetry Library.

Central library plays an integral role in supporting the academic programmes of the university. It identifies, evaluates, procures, processes and then makes these learning resources available to faculty, students and research scholars for their teaching, learning and research assignments. It guides school libraries in developing their collections as well as their services. Resources of central library comprise of excellent collection of books, reports, journals, electronic resources, institutional repository, and items in all conceivable areas to encourage interdisciplinary and value added research. The library also holds a collection of VSS reports, MTS reports, Project reports, case studies, working papers, annual reports in all subject areas taught at the University. It has over the years built a robust collection of 10,18,434 books, 16806 bound volumes, 665 current subscription to print journals, magazines, 3368 CDs/DVDs, and many other resources.
